Two Hard Workers What shall I say about Captain Cering the very best advice, trying the best he knew how to direct and help in every way possible to accomplish a glorious victory. And the same time he was not losing anything that belonged to him without a fight. Good old reliable Captain Jewett. The man who was with me in the beginning, was with me all the way through, and is still on his job. How he did work! A great big fellow, but he made the little ones go' some. You can't lose when you have men like Captain Jewett, for he won't let you.

Out for More Business. Captain King; well, here is another one. In at the start, fighting all the way through and came in at the finish as fresh as he was at the start. Let me tell you, Captain King is out for more ousiness for Norwich, and he don't care a d— how we get it, if we only get it. A few more men like Captain King will help wonderfully to get Norwich to that 50,000 mark.

Captain Brown. He may be young in years, but he advice he gave to the bid boys showed that men soon "grow old on the battlefield." How could we have gotten along without band-some Captain Brown? Well, we didn't have to, and he is going to be with us until old Norwich is the largest city in Up on Their Toes.

Now comes smiling Captain Jimmy Case. What is to be said! He hadn't been appointed five minutes before he had half of his men selected. He got them up on their toes and they stayed there until the last gun was fired. I think Captain Jim would have secured $50,000 out of that 30 pages if he had been forced to do it in order to win. Captain Williams, working under the most trying difficulties. He put his best foot forward. His advice was second to no man's. The directors also issued a call for the subscribers to pay in at once one-third of their subscriptions, the pay-

Three years ago Mr. Williamson placed the property in Mr. Case's hands to manage and put the price of sale at $20,000. It has been listed in Mr. Case's office for three years at $20,000. Mr. Williamson has not offered it for sale at a lower figure. He has refused three offers for it at a lower price. Last summer Mr. Williamson gave an option on the property to a paper pulp manufacturer for $15,000. The deal fell through and the sale was not at the Thames National bank, wher fell through and the sale was not the bank officials have kindly placed room at the disposal of Treasurer Hewitt. Temporary Treasurer Charles W. Gale has received a little over $1.70

If you eat, smoke or drink too much always remember that two little MI-Q-NA stomach tablets taken just before you go to bed will destroy all poison-ous gases and leave you with a sweet, clean stomach in the morning. For Indigestion and all stomach distress, MI-O-NA is the best prescription in the world. The Lee & Osgood Co. sells it on money back plan. Large

KNOCKING, KNOCKING. CONSTANTLY ENOURING. WHAT?

The greatest difficulty is we are not ready to grasp it when it comes. Two opportunities to place stenographers came to me recently. Had no one on my list fully equipped. These apportunities are coming constantly. If you are thinking of taking SHORTHAND and TYPEWRITING, commence now, and be ready to take one of these opportunities.
